Buddhist Studies Scholarship Application

Khyentse Foundation Buddhist Studies Scholarships are awarded for one-year terms. They are intended to support those who wish to study Buddhadharma. KF Scholarship recipients may apply each year for a continuing scholarship to fund longer-term studies.

QUALIFICATIONS

KF accepts applications from students or practitioners from all Buddhist traditions. Applications are reviewed by an international selection committee appointed by Dzongsar Khyentse Rinpoche.

The amount of each scholarship awarded depends on the scope of the proposal. Full funding of proposals is not always possible, and partial funding may be offered to some applications. KF is able to offer scholarships because of the great generosity of our donors. Please keep this in mind and request only what you need for your dharma activity.

INSTRUCTIONS

Applications are accepted twice a year, from December 15 through January 15 and from June 15 through July 15. Applications received at any other time will not be reviewed. Applicants are notified of decisions approximately four months after the end of the application period.

Please complete all four sections of the application form. If you are applying for a continuing scholarship, complete Appendix A. If you are applying for PhD or postdoctoral support, complete Appendix B. Be brief and precise in stating your scholarship purpose (Section Two). We want to know where you are studying and what the scholarship funds would pay for. Keep your answer simple. You can tell us more in your answers to other questions on the application. Please answer all questions as completely as you can.

- If you are applying for a continuing scholarship, you must also complete Appendix A.
- If you are applying for support for PhD or postgraduate work, you must also complete Appendix B.
- Complete all essay questions in fewer than 400 words.
- Your budget should be in US dollars ($).
- Email the completed application to scholarships@khyentsefoundation.org with your name in the subject line.
- If you have any questions about scholarships or the application form, please contact scholarships@khyentsefoundation.org.
